

Exploring the L.A.

Chinatown Gallery Scene

(Arranged by Ann and Bob Myers)

Saturday, October 10th

Join us for a fun, informative, art filled day in Historic Chinatown - visiting many established and new spaces in this historic area. Join the Top Gallerists, including Tom Solomon at his New Space, and then visit his unique "Cottage Home" project space which is located in an Old Chinatown cinema. We will also visit the Charlie James Gallery, who was the first L.A. gallery to have a solo show for Libby Black. Other stops will include Jancar and Sabina Lee Galleries. Don't worry, "Fong's" is on our list, enjoy this very eclectic shop. After our gallery visits, we will have a delicious lunch at "Mandarin Chateau". If time allows, we will hop over to CIRRUS gallery for a quick look at their current show, savoring the back-room treasures. Wear comfortable walking shoes.
